A Brief History of the F.O.F.F

Educationally approved by the Ministry of Stamps.

First emerging out of the deep, creative, primordial soup of David Luxembourg's minds in 2004, F.O.F.F. was a red comic-strip-note-book describing the inner interactions and social behavior functions of small nipple like creatures, who's motto in life (and in paper) was 'Nihilism? Modern? Why?!'. Although being unsure about the origin of their name, F.O.F.F., these nipple like creatures were actually quite very sure that it had something to do with somebody else's sausage, or would mean literally 'somebody else's sausage'. Their hobbies included gazing at cardboard

Nation of F.O.F.F is Opening its Borders for New Citizens

7 Nov. Cardboard City, NoF.

With a special press conference, held by the Ministry of stamps, the Nation of F.O.F.F. declared today that it will be opening its borders for new citizens of puppet, pet and human decent, as of the 1st of December 2008.

Attending the press conference was also the NoF's 'el Presidente' himself, Mr. Colomba, who took the opportunity to invite all interested individuals to join this young nation and instructed the Ministry of Stamps to extend his invitation to prominent cultural figures all over the world, adding that the Nation of F.O.F.F. will welcome them in "open arms and an open wallets".

The Minister of Stamps then elaborated "From December, this year and on, anybody who has interest in becoming a F.O.F.F. citizen, and subsequently in enjoying the privileges and obligations egg packages (containing 6 eggs) and Launching airborne hamsters from a specially modified bazooka, their favorite pet was the common garden snail, the Cornu aspersa, and their most prized possession, if haven't guessed it already, was a sausage (not of their own, apparently stolen, then found in a tin can before being heroically salvaged by an innocent and caring F.O.F.F.).

In 2005/6 when David Luxembourg shifted his attention to fashion design, the F.O.F.F. were brutally ironed to death and from their flattened skin David drew inspiration for his conceptually experimental fashion collection 'Volution'. This collection which was formally composed of 15 outfits, all relating to one another and all together manifesting the ideas behind the evolution theory in design, had also a 16th outfit, a doll that David carried in that this nation grants to its citizens, may do so with a simple procedure - All we need is a name, e-mail address, a sex gender, a year of birth and a fee of 25 Euros, - administrative fee".

The application form for a F.O.F.F. citizenship will be available upon request at the Ministry of Stamps hotline: Ministry_of_Stamps@hotmail.com.

his jacket's pocket. This doll was the return from certain and terminal 'death by ironing' of the F.O.F.F. and Later on it became known as 'James Dean' (...first F.O.F.F. ever,) famous for its work as a photo model.

Although James Dean has retired from professional photo modeling in 2007 and moved to Amsterdam (where he spends his time watching the grachts and counting imaginary sheep), David Luxembourg continued to work with its (F)offsprings, Took care of a steady population growth, cultivated and bred them into various Pocket-Dolls-Action-Figures, the result of which we can see to this day.

'Blasts' the City of Eindhoven in Dutch Design Week

1 Nov. City of Eindhoven, Netherlands.

Foffzilla, the unstoppable titan of F.O.F.F. terror, and the latest theatrical fashion production of the Nation of F.O.F.F. premiered last month at Dutch Design Week in Eindhoven. The show, which was inspired by 1954's film 'Godzilla', featured a menacing giant F.O.F.F. shaped monster rising over the sky line of Cardboard City (capital city of NoF) and served as the perfect set for presenting the new 2008-9 F.O.F.F. collection.

The new collection of militaristic models like G.I. F.O.F.F., General F.O.F.F. and F.O.F.F. Hero, were present together with old models like James Dean, Foffette and 'the Thing', and provided an overview of the F.O.F.F. project (since it beginning in may 2007) that also included the big stars; Moose, Wolver F.O.F.F. , Ice F.O.F.F. and the 'el president' himself: Mr. Colomba.

With an exclusive number of 20 seats per show and 2 shows a day, Foffzilla ran for 10 days and drew over 300 viewers and 2000 visitors to the Design Species exposition, in wish it was held.

Nation of F.O.F.F. Army Established

12 Dec. Cardboard City, NoF.

With the introduction of new military like F.O.F.F. characters last October the Ministry of Stamps has also began the work of mobilizing and conscripting F.O.F.F. for the National F.O.F.F. Guard also known as the F.O.F.F. army.

The duties that will be assigned to this new army of F.O.F.F., also know as the Nation of F.O.F.F. Defense Forces, are 1- to protect all F.O.F.F., 2- to protect all F.O.F.F. again (just in case) and 3- the relocation and retrieval of lost sausages.

In a short comment the press the minister of stamps has reiterated the strong commitment of all F.O.F.F. to their sausages saying "The deep connection that every F.O.F.F. has with its sausage, or with sausages in general, is so deep & extreme that we cannot just stand idle and let all those poor, lost and homeless sausages go to waste and rot. Therefore it is only natural the Nation of F.O.F.F. will do something for the welfare and prosperity of its sausages."

In charge of the job of formalizing this new army, also known as the F.O.F.F. Sausage Legions, is General F.O.F.F. 'Dutch Courage' who took on this job from his predecessor Captain F.O.F.F. now in charge on the newly formed F.O.F.F. Presidential Guard, an elite F.O.F.F. force devoted to the protection of the 'el Presidente' himself Mr. Colomba.

“... And a Happy New Year! from the Nation of F.O.F.F.”

EXTRA! EXTRA! EXTRA! EXTRA! EXTRA! EXTRA! EXTRA!

Some Words from Our President for the New Year

01 Jan. 2009, Cardboard City, NoF.

Duck? Dinner?! Dumplings! How Delicious!

Dear citizens, friends, companions, colleagues and fellow F.O.F.F. As the President of the Peoples Republic of F.O.F.F.I.A. Formally Known As the Nation of F.O.F.F. it gives me great honor and pleasure to wish you all a happy new year for the first time in the history of our young nation.

As fire crackers and fire works and other dangerous explosives are continuously being thrown into the mailbox, in which my presidential palace resides, by freaks, hooligans and kids who are just out to have some fun I certainly hope that your holiday season and new year's eve has passed in calm and somewhat orderly manner and with safe, cozy, pleasurable activities.

I can also assure you that by the next holiday season our newly established army, a.k.a. the Sausage Legion, will be finally able to defend my presidential palace and do so even more sufficiently after we get the defensive radar and anti missile systems, as promised to us from the Americans.

In the fields of politics and democracy I am glad to inform you that even though our young country is nothing more than a spring chicken, we have already made crucial steps forward in the political scene during the lasts month and that very soon we will hold our first presidential elections between candidates of the newly formed political parties of the nation of F.O.F.F.

Also I would like to praise the Ministry of Stamps and its workers for their timid and efficient work and for the effort that they have poured into the creation of our first national News-paper 'The National F.O.F.F. Gazette' which will go online in a day or two.

Finally, in 2009 we may face many challenges. Some may be trivial, others existential, however I can assure you all that whatever the circumstances the Nation of F.O.F.F. will work together with the international community, locally and globally, and engage on those challenges.

And with those of you who are currently concerned with the financial situation, or other existential matters, I would like to share an advice, that was given to me by a lovely Fortune Chicken not so long ago, and that is that even in the hardest of times, flowers and trees grow with out fear.

So and with out further ado, I wish you all, on behalf of the Nation of F.O.F.F., myself, the Minister of Stamps and his wife, an exciting, marvelous, industrious, fabulous, intriguing, inspiring, enlightening, peaceful, secure, wealthy, prestigious and very, very happy new year!

Mr. Colomba
President
Nation of F.O.F.F.
